

2013 Student Conference for Ecology and the Environment

Hoogenraad Auditorium, La Trobe University, Melbourne.

11th November 2013, 1200-1800h.

What is the conference about?

The 2013 Student Conference is run for students by students. We aim to create a forum for graduates and postgraduates to discuss their research, to form collaborations, and to network with their peers in the fields of ecology and environmental science.

Who can attend?

This conference is open to all graduate and postgraduate students in the Melbourne area, as well as to students from La Trobe regional campuses.

What topics will be covered?

The topics covered will include:

- Current thinking in Ecology and the Environment: PhD student's perspectives
- Monitoring the Success of Restoration Programs,
- Insects as Indicators of Change in Ecology, and
- Words of Wisdom: Things I wish someone had told me while I was doing my PhD.

How can I participate?

Conference registration is available from the conference website:

<http://beeglstudentconference.weebly.com/>

We also encourage delegates to participate in any of the following conference events:

- Oral Presentations of current research: 10-12 minutes
- Poster Presentation of current or planned research: A2-A0 size
- Photography Competition: Ecology and the Environment theme

Two $ 100.00 prizes are available for the best Oral and Poster Presentations. One $ 50.00 prize is available for the best photograph submitted for the photography competition.

SUBMISSIONS CLOSE ON OCTOBER 31st, 2013.

Please visit the conference website for more information and to register for these events.

We hope that you will also join us after the conference for dinner and drinks on High Street (Northcote), and look forward to your participation in this exciting event!

Jen Wiltshire, Lara Bereza-Malcom, and Nicole Coggan.
Conference Organisation Team, La Trobe University.

LA TROBE
UNIVERSITY

SECURING FOOD, WATER AND THE ENVIRONMENT